

Branding Packaging

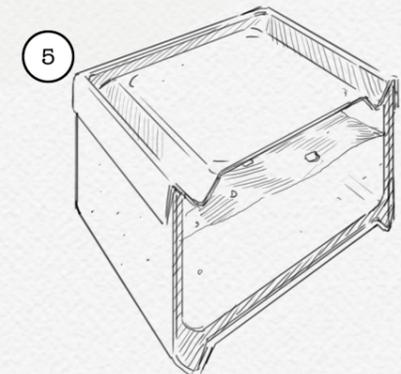

SINGLE SET

The take away packaging is inspired by the tiffin boxes of South India and Nepal. These boxes are widely used to carry packed lunches in the region. The NoDu design is a stack of tray components that hold various ingredients separately (soup, meat, vegetable toppings and sauce) to maintain freshness and flavor. These ingredients are then combined in the soup tray for serving. An attached chopstick and spoon are also included in the package.

Tray Packaging Components
